

Flying Carpet Blue-Red

Skip your way to the other side: who is the fastest?

A game that combines endurance, speed, agility and cooperation. In other words: the ideal hexathlon game. It's great for children's parties, but also for teambuilding events for co-workers and soccer teams preparing for the upcoming season. If your customer is looking for items to add to their hexathlon collection, this skipping carpet will certainly come in handy. One person (or more, to make it even more difficult) skips on the carpet, while others try to pull the carpet to the finish line as quickly as possible. And - of course - falling is not an option! Please note: price per piece!
