

Party Bag Red

A sack for three. Which team is the fastest?

A very funny take on the already hilarious hexathlon sack race – that's how you can best describe these JB party sacks. The item consists of no fewer than three bags sewn together, which means three participants have to stick together as a team and hop to the finish line as fast as they possibly can. If that doesn't provide a sense of teambuilding, cooperation and, above all, a lot of old-fashioned fun, what will? Adding these party sacks to your collection will allow you to offer a more varied product range for teambuilding events, bachelor parties or kids' parties - or for any type of hexathlon your customers want to organize.

Super easy, super fun

It goes without saying that a 'party sack race' is a super fun part of a hexathlon. All your customer has to do, is take the large pants-shaped sacks that fit three people side by side out of the transport cover that we have conveniently included. The sack-pants are available in red and blue.

Premium quality by JB and a 5-year warranty to boot

All hexathlon items by JB have several reinforced tension points and are multiply stitched. These party sacks are no exception and because the bags are made of strong, high-quality PVC, they are durable and easy to keep clean as well. In addition, we provide a 5-year warranty for all rental items from our extensive collection and we have our own repair service to boot.

Purchase these mega-sized party pants, which are guaranteed to bring many a hilarious moment. They are fun and a real bag of laughs!
