

Inflatable Cone

cheerfully waving pillars of light: now that captures the attention!

If your customer has found you because they were looking for a distinctive way to present a product, property or other object, you can confidently suggest using these special, funny and striking light pillars. The pillars have a cheerful face and frantically wave their arms. Now if that doesn't attract attention, nothing will. We can supply the pillars in any shape, color and size imaginable. Please contact us for more information. Our product range also includes other types of standard pillars: Light Pillar Cone, Light Pillar Claw and Light Pillar Standard.

Sets up in less than no time

These light cones (the standard size standing 2.5 meters tall and weighing 15 kilograms) are very easy to set up. When using the clear manual, you can even do it alone. It has a silent blower as a standard feature and everything else you need is also conveniently included: a practical transport bag, for instance and a remote control to regulate the light.
